

Imants Tillers

Born: 1950 Sydney, NSW

Imants Tillers began painting whilst studying a degree in Science Architecture (Hons) at the University of Sydney, during which he was awarded the University Medal. His work.....(a bit about his style, concepts...)

and has been involved in a number of solo and group exhibitions on a national and international scale. Imants has held over 35 solo exhibitions since 1973, including those at Roslyn Oxley9 Gallery, Sydney, Museo de Arts Contemporaneo de Monterrey, Mexico and the 42nd Venice Biennale in Italy. His work has also featured numerous group exhibitions, including those at the Institute of Modern Art, Brisbane, Museum of Contemporary Art, London and various biennales, such as in Brazil and China. Since 1976, Imants has received many notable awards, such as the Prize for Excellence during the First Beijing International Art Biennale, China, the Grand Prize at the Osaka Painting Triennial, Japan and most recently, a Doctor of Letters (Honoris Causa) at the University of New South Wales, Sydney. Imants currently lives in Cooma, New South Wales where he continues to paint.....