The Stories of the Woods _ notes from the auther

Spring stands for fairies of life and woods,

which brings us lovely scent and taste,

and in the days like breathing in the Eden-Garden there are full of lives of hope.

The woods, seeking passion and hopes, is mysterious itself

Whenever I climb the Mt., there are gifts blessed to greet me.

The woods presenting us happiness and fortune,

the Stories of woods painted by dots are whispering about dream, passion and truth.

The woods teaching us the equality and giving us the rest and peace in our lives, we are used to ignoring the presents. Drawing the woods going to ruin, even today I can't stop drawing the reality, the stories of woods.
