

Yoonkyung, Kim

Yoonkyung Kim received her BFA from Silla University in 1990 and afterward majored in industrial arts at Donga University. She was a promising young artist who had her own personality during her university days. She has been leading an active life, participating in invitation exhibitions, project exhibitions, and youth biennale. Her works are based on various life experiences and express her inner side. She implies in her works that the ordinary events of our everyday lives are life itself and every life is worth living. Simplicity as well as beauty in details are shown in her works. When you appreciate them, you may feel various emotions: joy, sorrow, pleasure, love, pain, etc. Her works will arouse your sympathy.
