Artwork description

Things Beautiful

It is try greatest happiness and delights to remember the warmness, loveliness and beauty of nature lost since childhood and hidden below the surface of memory thereafter and to be able to bring into life warm feeling and memory often felt during childhood.

By filling into circular shaped canvases heaps of flowers comprised from each individual flower, I sougheed to convey the messages of beauty, love, delight and hopes given to us by the nature and also wish for happiness and success to all viewers.
