ABOUT THE ARTIST

M.F.A. Chung-Ang University

B.F.A Dae-Gu Catholic University

He is a painting artist in Korea. He shows a very realistic work through reconstruction of the material, trump card. The writer focuses on hard and material things and interprets the symbolism of the trump card, expressing the anxieties of contemporary society who are at risk of collapse. The writer has series of various interpretations using Trump cards. His most recent works will be showcased through the contemporary art show Hong Kong in 2018. The artist presents various attempts at the intersection of artistic value and popular activities, and continues to exhibit annually at major galleries in Korea, such as Seoul Station, Seoul Affordable Art Fair, and KIEF, as well as galleries and galleries. His works are housed in the Osan Museum of Art, The Art Bank of National Museum of Modern and Contemporary Art, and Seoul Museum.
