

Feng Jing

Born 1989, Hebei, P. R. China

Feng Jing was born in 1989 in Hebei, China. She has got her bachelor's degree from Tianjin Academy of Fine Arts and her master's from Tsing Hua University, the two prestigious universities in China. She is now a popular young artist and has been featured in a very large number of exhibitions.

In the series of works she created in the past two years, "Withered Garden" has put different things in a world of illusory beauty. She uses roses as the main carrier. Roses symbolize love. Frigid and with hidden sharp prickles, they also metaphor our roles in love.
