

SHI KUN

Artist Shi Kun has participated in multiple national printing competitions and art shows when he was still in college. His works Death Zone 2 and Night Flowers have been exhibited in Fujian Art Gallery and China Printing Museum collectively. Caging himself in previous success of his university years is not an option for him and he is still learning from the best printing artists of this time.