Chen Wuqing 陈梧擎

Shenzhen 2018

陈梧擎，1992年出生于上海。毕业于上海工艺美术学院，油画第一工作室。

少年艺术求学时期学习中国水墨，后渐渐开始对西方艺术语言进行学习探究。希望可以利用西方绘画中媒材的厚薄，色彩的冷暖，空间的叙事，以油画技法表达中国水墨意蕴，在东西方艺术语言碰撞中不断尝试新的可能。

Chen Wuqing was born in 1992 in Shanghai. He graduated from Shanghai Art & Design Academy and the N.1 Oil Painting Department.

He began to study Chinese ink painting at an early age. Later in College, he studied Western pictorial language and technique. There, he learnt how to combine different materials and techniques developed in Western paintings in relation with texture, position of the subject and colours contrast which has guided him through his search for his own artistic expression.
