

Jo, Jung-suk(1950~)

Graduated Department of painting, college of Fine Art, Hoingik University

Awards

International exhibition of Korea, Japan and China, special selection

Korea' s top leading artist exhibition in San Francisco, silver award

The AAI Art Competition, special prize

Korea Arts Competition, special selection

Mokwwhoe public offering exhibition, honorable mention

Solo Exhibition

2000 The fifth private exhibition, Seoul Arts Center

2004 The sixth private exhibition, Hanjeon Art Center

2004 The seventh private exhibition, Sun gallery

2006 The eighth private exhibition, Sandigo CJ gallery

2007 The nineth private exhibition, Insa art center

2008 The tenth private exhibition, Sun Gallery

2014 The eleventh private exhibition, Seoul Arts Center

Jo Jung Suk was born and raised in Seoul, Korea, where she attended Hong-ik University majoring in the fine arts with a focus in Painting. Since establishing her own studio in Korea, Ms. Jo Jung Suk has participated in Over 200 different group arts exhibitions, including private exhibits as well showings across the globe. She is currently a participating member of the Korea Fine Arts Association, the Hong-ik Female Painters Association as well as the Korean-Germany Fine Arts Association. Ms. Jo Jung's artistic style can be described as one that is focused on dismantling the human nude figure with liberty whereas they are reconstituted and recomposed into "invented" new forms and norms. Through the various media such as oil, pastel, acrylic paints, charcoal, conte, canvas, kente paper, Korean paper, the process of the artwork captures every lively moments in a revolution of visual composition and arrest in a unifying sense based on valuable and keen temporal moments.