

NG Chi-ni (Hong Kong)

Chi-ni holds steadfast in the subjects of her paintings. They are her family members, various kinds of food, characters of TV animated series Sailor Moon and festivals. At leisure, she uses her fingers to draw pictures in the air. As all creations are already in her mind, she can externalize them in class immediately. She will leave the class only after she finishes her works, really insisting.