

1. Short history of your gallery

Started with opening Moosim Gallery in 1990, UM gallery has opened in 2002 at Art Street in Seoul, Korea. Based on this experience, UM Gallery is a project-centered-gallery which introduces domestic, international artists with variable exhibitions, provides artistic background through inviting artists to join in a prize contest for the best artworks, and aims at art space which let Korean Arts breathe internationally with vigorous participation in art fairs domestically, internationally.

UM Gallery offers public art project, art rent service, art interior design with security of cooperation with enterprises, and also internet exhibition to offer much wider exhibition space for artists accessible.

Even more UM Gallery has been proactively undertaken its role as a gateway of introducing the Korean contemporary arts and discovering young artists and introducing them not only to the Korean society but also to all over the world, such as Singapore, Hong Kong, China, Japan and even knocking on the doors of the USA and Europe.
