

Gallery Aile

Gallery Aile (Aile means Wing in French, including images of a gallery flying up freely) is the exhibition space opened by Kkonggi Company. Aile is a space for showing and selling paintings by famous painters and promising new artists. Currently, GALLERY AILE holds works of 4 affiliated artists and 20 active artists, and is planning to hold a variety of group exhibitions, and private guest exhibitions, and art fairs, including shows for affiliated artists.

GALLERY AiLE is also going to plan and present various artistic contents and educational programs as well as exhibitions, and tries to help the popularization of our paintings and communication with artists. Moreover, we will try to find and train new artists, and take the lead in popularizing and modernizing art markets.

Gallery Aile's mission is to making an effort to identify and foster promising emerging artists and holds exhibitions for famous domestic artists. It supports affiliated artists through a variety of exhibition planning and programs, and guarantees their unrestricted activities.

Gallery Aile will makes plans and puts forward a variety of educational programs and cultural events such as meeting artists, and meeting painters, which anyone can participate in and the general public. Furthermore, we will try to keep communication and to have a partnership with various galleries where we can proceed to find various artists.
