

REDSQUARE
GALLERY

RED SQUARE GALLERY was founded by Russian artist Anastasia Katafygiotis in 2007, in Hong Kong.

The Gallery is dedicated to bringing artworks from parts of the world that are currently not adequately represented, including Russia and ex-Soviet Union States.

Red Square Gallery, named after the famous historical Kremlin Square in Moscow, aims to fill the gap and contribute towards the diversity of Hong Kong art scene. The Gallery houses a significant collection of Russian art, it supports emerging talented artists while also represents well-established artists and showcases compelling exhibitions on a regular basis for art collectors and art enthusiasts. We put great effort to ensure that the artworks we exhibit are not only truly stunning, but also present a great value and offer investment opportunities.
