

Artist: Akshita Gandhi

Country: India/USA, Room 4011

Short Bio: Born in Mumbai, Akshita completed her IB from the American School of Bombay. She then graduated from the Lotus Institute in Dubai with an MA in Fine Arts.

Her first private art exhibition took place in Mumbai, India (2003). She displayed a varied range of landscapes done in oil on canvas and the proceeds were donated to an Old Age home (in Karjat). Her work has been featured at International fairs such as World Art Dubai, the Index Exhibition, the Executive Women Magazine fair, the International Boat Show, and SCOPE Miami.

She continues to leave her mark by pursuing the belief of giving back to the community and recently founded the Dua Foundation: A social enterprise that aims to empower vulnerable members of society by providing them a platform, which will enable them to gain financial independence via their art and craft skills.
